

Deborah Ann Jones

October 9, 1952 - May 22, 2022

Deborah Ann Jones answered the call of her heavenly Father to begin her life of eternal rest. A native of the Coastal Bend area where Rockport was considered home. She attended and graduated from Rockport-Fulton High School in 1971.

Her spiritual life began by way of her love for music. She was the choir director at Friendship Baptist Church in Corpus Christi when she received and answered her call to preach the Gospel in April 1978. She received theological training at Howard Payne University and Texas Bible College. She continued to minister and sing throughout the Rockport & Corpus Christi surrounding areas until being appointed in 1981 to serve as Pastor of First Church of God in Tollette, AR. She returned to Texas in 1985 to continue her ministry in her hometown of Rockport and served the Texas State Assembly of the Church of God in many capacities. God opened doors for her to continue to minister thru preached word and singing outside of Texas. She was the guest speaker/singer for many revivals, conferences and other church programs in California, Tennessee, Arkansas, Louisiana, and Mississippi. In 1991 she moved to San Antonio, TX continuing the journey laid out for her. In 1993, she founded and established Northeast Community Fellowship in San Antonio. Deborah had a true call of God on her life was a true prayer warrior also.

Outside of the ministry, she was a licensed cosmetologist and an avid seamstress. She made garments for herself and for her family.

Deborah was preceded in death by her mother Mattie Bell Burton, two brothers Samuel Odoms and Willie Burton, grandson Brion McCray. She leaves to cherish her memories: her husband Oliver Jones, Sr., children Monica (Harold) Moore, Aaron (Vee) Anderson and Oliver J. Jones, Jr.; her grand children Candace, Isaiah, Shimea and Allison, Roderick, Jamarron & Brianna; one brother Paris Huff, Sr (Hortense) numerous nephews, nieces and extended family members and friends.

Her services will be held on Saturday, June 11, 2022, 1:00pm at Rockport Church of God, 210 Highway 35 South in Rockport, TX. The Musical Memorial Tribute to celebrate her life will be on Saturday, July 23, 2023 4:00 pm at Beitel United Methodist Church. 227 S. Acme Road, San Antonio, TX

“ Its with sadness that we learn of the death of our Sister in Christ, Sister Deborah Jones. She served with us for a few years at the East End Church of God, (now New Beginnings Ministries Church of God) in San Antonio, as an associate with Pastor Doc Hancock, prior the starting the Northeast Fellowship Congregation. I remember the wonderful times we had at Campmeetings when she was in charge of the musicals on Monday nights, to get the Campmeeting started on a high note. We will miss seeing and hearing her sing at future Campmeeting. We are praying for you, her family, at this time of sorrow and may the Lord's hands of compassion and love and His guiding light from above shine down on you and give you strenght during this time of bereavement.

“ Pastor Deborah Jones was anointed by God to preach the gospel I had the privilege of hearing her preach and sing at Northeast Community Fellowship in San Antonio. When she preached it seemed as the message was directed at each of us individually. She had a way of engaging us when she preached. It was my hope to hear her again one day and am sadden to know that this will not be possible, but I know that we will see her again in heaven. I pray and ask the Lord to comfort her loved ones. She touched so many people with her words and with her beautiful voice. She is now singing in the angels' choir. I thank God for Pastor Deborah. She was beautiful and talented lady and a truly inspiring speaker. I will always hear her singing "God's Got It All In Control" Pastor Deborah will be missed by so many. My heart is sad because I will not be able to see her again in this life but I'm joyful because I know she is with Jesus. May the Lord bless and comfort her family. Mary Thomas
