

Deborah Mims

April 24, 1951 - December 9, 2020

“A star that shined so bright the midnight sky needed to call her home.”

Deborah Mims was a mother, grandmother, and beloved aunt. She was treasured by everyone that was fortunate enough to cross paths with her and would always go out of her way to make sure her family was happy. She was always quick to fill the air with laughter. A lover of Marilyn Monroe and a diva in her own right. Deb always caught the attention of the room whenever she walked in, whether it be a story about falling asleep in the tub or her “Heeeeeelloooooo” whenever she arrived for a visit. Aunt Deb was a lover of reading, a certified Christmas Elf, and a connoisseur of wine. I feel she would be happy seeing how those of us that succeed her have carried on those same passions. A memorial will be held at 10:00 AM on Friday, February 25, 2022 at Oxford United Methodist Church with inurnment to follow at Mission Burial Park North.
