

Deborah Lynn San Miguel

November 24, 1962 - July 22, 2016

Deborah Lynn San Miguel went to be with the Lord on July 22, 2016. She was born on November 25, 1962 in San Antonio, Texas to Frank San Miguel and Mary Lou Toscano San Miguel. Deborah was preceded in death by her father; her grandparents, Eulalio & Tomasita Toscano and Leocardio & Guadalupe San Miguel; and numerous aunts & cousins. She is survived by her mother; and her daughter, Alyssa Watson; sister, Elyssa San Miguel Marlin Shane; brothers, Frank San Miguel, Gabriel San Miguel Janie, Daniel San Miguel; niece, April "Dorien" Earl Christopher; and their children, Christopher Jr. & Luna.

Throughout Deborah's years, her profession was mainly an Orthodontic Assistant, but also at different points in her life, she was a cheerleading coach, a Girl Scout troop leader, a dart team captain, an internet-appointed reverend, and a life-long lover of animals. Her hobbies included fishing, camping, going to state parks, and riding bicycles with her many friends and family.

Deborah was a special, one-of-a-kind soul. She was adventurous, daring, bold, outspoken, goofy, unafraid, and, above all, loving. She was a wild spirit that truly lived by the beat of her own rhythm. She was a guiding light, sunshine incarnate, a pillar of strength, had the warmth of a campfire and instilled her loving, caring, compassionate, independent, strong ways in her daughter, niece, grandnephew, and grandniece. She would want her loved ones to think back on memories with her and fill themselves up with laughter instead of hurt. She died in her battle here on earth, but now she joins the ranks of St. Michael.

Visitation will be held on Wednesday, July 27, 2016 from 3:00pm - 9:00pm, with a Rosary at 7:00pm at Palm Heights Mortuary.
