

Debra Ann Klaus

October 28, 1959 - July 27, 2021

Debra Ann Klaus, 61, passed in peace on July 27, 2021, at the Stone Oak Methodist Hospital, after a courageous battle with cancer. She was born October 28, 1959, in San Antonio, TX, the daughter of Pete Chavarria and Janie Zaragoza Chavarria.

Debra attended Edgewood high school and attained her GED in June of 1996 at St. Phillips College. She then continued her education in Medical Billing and Collections later acquiring a Medical Secretary diploma from Career Point Business School in 1998.

Starting her career at Advanced Micro Devices, Debra worked 10 years with them. After, she went on to various medical offices and ended her career as a medical billing and collections manager in 2020. She then made the decision to stay home with her grandchildren and enjoyed spending her time caring for her family.

In 1991, Debra met her husband, Mark Klaus. On June 12, 1999, Debra and Mark were married by the Catholic Church. They have enjoyed 30 years total together and celebrated 22 years married this June, 2021. She enjoyed everything from cooking and trying out new recipes to attending concerts with her friends and family. Debra always enjoyed getting together with her family and celebrating all occasions. She also loved to relax and watch all sorts of movies including her all-time favorite, The Wizard of Oz. One can assume that the thing that she loved the most was her family including her grandchildren whom she would always try to give the world to.
