“ Tia Delia was my favorite aunt as I was growing up..I remember when she and my uncle Benny would pick me up in floresville and bring me back to SA with them..they lived behind the sears store on Pleasanton rd and military drive..she would fix my favorite breakfast..scrambled eggs with butter..and I would get to hold the baby while she fixed it..they would take me to the Salvation Army store to buy shoes and some shirts..did not want to go home..loved them both very very much..RIP Tia..and Tio..our deepest sympathies to the family...jr..Feliz.
