“ We first met Delia in late 1995 after Thanksgiving break when the nanny did not return and Delia agreed to watch Bartise so I could return to work. Then along came Amalia in 1996 and she loved them both and myself through the years. She was a trusted confidant, advisor, traveling buddy, second mother and grandmother, and so much more. We called her our Angel as she truly came into our lives at a much needed time. I remember coming home from work and hearing the sounds of laughter coming from my house and I knew my children were in the best of care. Thank you, Delia for all the love and laughter! Thank you to the Vasquez Family for sharing the special gift of your Mother Delia with us all these years. We are Forever Grateful! Love to All, The Bowdens'. Penny (Robert, Bartise, Amalia and my father, George William Nichols)
