Delores Mary “Tudy” Dick, 85, of San Antonio, TX, lost her fight with cancer on May 16, 2018, in the comfort of her home surrounded by her husband and four children.

Tudy was born March 28, 1933, in Lisbon, ND. The daughter of Karl A. Weiler and Lillian Gereau, she was the youngest of 15 children.

She attended St. Aloysius Parochial School, Lisbon High School, St. John’s School of Nursing in Fargo, ND, and graduated as a Registered Nurse from the University of North Dakota in Grand Forks.

She is survived by her loving husband Gary; her daughter Roberta Prior of San Antonio, TX; her son Dana Dick of Tallassee, AL; her daughter Julie Bais and husband Tim of Poway, CA; her son Dave Walter of Seattle, WA; and her grandson Kyle Pollitt and wife Skylar of Los Angeles, CA.

An informal gathering of family and friends will be held Sunday, June 10, 2018. Contact us at tudgar@gmail.com for details.

In lieu of flowers, we suggest a donation to a charity of your choice.

Knowing it was difficult for friends to stay away during what became the last days of her life, the family appreciates the privacy afforded.

The following is an excerpt from “Don’s Memories” by Donald Weiler, Tudy’s older brother, written in 2000. He tells it best.

Tudy, our kid sister, was the fifteenth child and last born. She is my buddy. We share visits, phone calls, letters, and [ed. wedding] anniversaries (both Dec. 27th). I adore her. After Mugs [ed. the 5th child and their older sister Margaret] was married and had moved to Wahpeton, Tudy and I were the last at home with Dad. We were both teenagers, 4 plus years apart, “babies” with adult responsibilities.

Dad, moody, and often unhappy, was away for long periods of time leaving a waning business, a big house and two kids to keep things going. Money was not short but it was not easy for either one of us. As the oldest, it was necessary I be involved with her chores, her dress, her studies, her diet, even her dating. I tried not to be bossy, snooty or overpowering, but I was. Mugs observed from Wahpeton and guided us as best she could, though 50 miles away. Tudy did great under these conditions and carried her responsibilities like an adult. She did well in high school and finally, when I went into the military in 1951, she assumed the homemaker role for Dad and herself.

She went on to nurse’s training and married her high school sweetheart, Gary Dick, a fine young man from a neighboring town. He schooled in engineering, went into the Air Force, and became a Lt. Colonel. During his career, they moved many times and traveled extensively. They raised two girls and two boys. Now retired, they live in San Antonio, TX. Tudy excels in everything she does. She keeps a beautiful home and operates a sewing and craft business from her home, with her own labels. She has updated her nurse's training and is still a qualified nurse. She is an excellent bridge player, as well as her husband, and is a fine teacher of the art. In addition to all this, she is still "a good looking chick."

“ I no longer live in SA and just found this out. When I moved to SA Tudy welcomed me into the Bridge Scene. Tudy taught us to play duplicate bridge. Many dinners and party bridge nights were shared. She was the best She also got me involved in the seeing and Craft community. In fact, the last time I saw her was in the Bernina embroidery machine shop. RIP Tudy.
