Deloris Ann McDonald

June 25, 1936 – June 17, 2020

Deloris Ann McDonald passed away peacefully surrounded by her daughters on June 17, 2020 in San Antonio, Texas at the age of 83. She was born on June 25, 1936 in Oklahoma City, OK to Bertha and Clyde Bowman. She grew up with her 3 sisters in Tuttle, Oklahoma and attended Tuttle United Methodist Church.

Leon “Mac” was the love of her life. Their love story began in a movie theater. He was on leave from the air force and back in Oklahoma. They knew of each other, but that night he sat behind her and threw popcorn in her hair to get her attention. They were together from then on. They were married on September 29, 1954. She moved to San Antonio to join him where he was stationed. They fell in love with Texas and decided to make their life in San Antonio.

They had 3 daughters, who were the center of their lives. She was involved in every aspect of her daughter’s lives, including Girl Scouts, PTA, church, and was known to throw a wedding together overnight. She and Mac were a team in life and in business. He was the entrepreneur, but she was the one who was there to make it all happen. They built many businesses together to support their family. Her biggest strength was her ability to balance family, home, and business. Being Mema was her crowning glory. Her grandchildren were the light of her life, and they could do no wrong. Her unconditional love was unwavering.

She is preceded in passing by her loving husband, Leon “Mac” McDonald, daughter, Connie Sue Perkins, mother and father, Bertha and Clyde Bowman, sister, Doris and her husband Matt, brother-in-law, Jim Robinett, and grandson, Wayne.

She is survived by her daughters, Vicki Stroman and her husband Roy, Debra Bryan and husband Steve; son-in-law, John Perkins; her sisters, Clydia Robinett, and Janice Gibson and her husband Ray; her grandchildren, Ricky Kiolbassa, Shauna Timothee and her husband Fermin, Dennie Howard; Scott Stroman and husband Wyatt, Tabatha Guerra and husband Mario; Mike Kiolbassa; Crystal Perkins, Justin Perkins and his wife Katy, and Kaytie O’Leary and her husband Nick, and 11 great grandchildren. As well as the many nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, and a host of “adopted’ children. She never met a stranger, everyone was welcome in her home and at her table.

The family is comforted by knowing that the love of her life and daughter were there to meet her at the gates of heaven. She is loved and missed by all.

Visitation will begin on Tuesday, June 23, 2020 from 5:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m. at Dellcrest Funeral Home. Funeral service will be held on Wednesday, June 24, 2020 at 11:00 a.m. at Dellcrest Funeral Home. Interment will follow at Mission Burial Park South.
