FUNERAL DIRECTOR: BOBBY DEUVALL

DATE TO RUN: FRIDAY, DECEMBER 28, 2007 WITH PHOTO

W I L L I A M S O N

Denise Marie Williamson, born August 30, 1959, was called home by her Lord and Savior on Dec. 26, 2007 at the age of 48.

She has joined her parents Charlie and "Dee" Williamson in heaven.

Denise is leaving behind her loving children, Sarah, Matthew and Laura Tellez. Her sisters Linda Hall, Sharon Hester, Donna Williamson along with her brothers Bernard Williamson and wife Debbie and Alan Armstrong, numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews and many many friends. She also leaves behind the father of her children, Rudy Tellez, his parents and brothers and sisters.

Denise was the epitome of courage; even in her battle with cancer her faith and her witty sense of humor remained uncanny to any other in comparison. She lived her life in sacrifice, displaying the sort of selflessness that we should all strive to achieve...and she did it with such grace. It is in memory of this woman that her family will continue to face the many trials of life in such a way that would make her proud...this in memory of a woman who can never be regarded as anything less than what she was: awesome.
