

Dennis Joseph Dupnick

December 9, 1955 - September 25, 2024

Dennis Joseph Dupnick joined his Lord on September 25, 2024 in San Antonio, Texas. He was born on December 9, 1955 in San Antonio, to Frank Dupnick and Myrtle Bludau. Dennis was known for his love of fishing, travelling, and music. He spent a lot of his life at the coast on the weekends. Dennis truly lived a life of no regrets. His main bucket list was to visit all 48 mainland states, with only 8 left to visit. Dennis was kind, patient, understanding, wise, and humorous. He'd light up a room with jokes and his smile. He never knew a stranger and it was an honor to be a part of his inner circle. He provided a consistent, peaceful safe place for his family and friends. His greatest accomplishment is his legacy, which will be carried on by his children and family. Dennis was preceded in death by his parents; and his sister, Cynthia Werner. He is survived by his son, Tyler Dupnick (Victoria); daughter, Elizabeth Sias (Vincent); sisters, Diane Wyatt (Ben) and Doreen Kainer (Carroll John); granddaughters, Star Beare, Lydian Beare, Lucia Dupnick, Nevaeh Dupnick and Katrina Sias; nieces and nephews, Clarissa (Ashley) Velasquez, Brigitta (Vincent) Rodriguez, Taylor Werner, Tait and Elise Wyatt, Jason (Alexandra), Johnathan and Jared Kainer.

For reception information, please reach out to Tyler Dupnick or Elizabeth Sias.

“ Sending my condolences to the Dupnick family and friends affected by the passing of Dennis Dupnick or Moby.
For many years we both grew up in Dellview, attended same church and schools and so much more. We became very close in our Junior and Senior years of High School. We drove to school together in those years, and rain or shine, that drive to Antonian was a comedy act with Moby's smile and humor, every single day. Every coast trip was the same. Moby will be missed by all who knew him. I was fortunate to have as a close friend.
God bless Moby and all his family

“ I remember Dennis from Elementary School. Almost every little girl in the class had a crush on him at one time or another. But he never really acknowledged us. He just went on his way. He always wore his daddy's aftershave which made him even more attractive. He was never hot and sweaty like the other boys. I didn't know him past 8th grade, but I'm sure he was a very nice man.
