Dewey Rash beloved husband, father, papa, great-grandfather, and brother age 80 of San Antonio, TX; joined his Savior on July 28, 2011, in the early morning hours, his favorite time of day. Preceded in death by parents, Robert Rash and Rosa Kindred; step-father, Walter Kindred; step-mother, Oleta Stencil; sisters, Emma Taylor and Ora Mae Beard; brothers, James Rash, Arnold Rash, Fred Rash, Oswald Rash, and Andrew Rash. Survived in death by wife, Jo Ann Walters Rash; son and daughter-in-law, Dewey Keith Bubba Rash and Karen Jackson Rash; daughter and son-in-law, Brenda Karen Rash Henderson and William Fenner Henderson; granddaughter and grandson-in-law, Briana Leigh Henderson Saussy and David Hunter Saussy, granddaughter, Brittany April Henderson, and great-grandson, Jasper Henderson Saussy all of San Antonio, Texas; sister Medallion Poteet of Magnolia, Texas. Dewey will be missed by his family, friends, and church family. He served his country in the United States Air Force and is a Korean War veteran. An avid gardener, he passed his love of animals, plants, and nature on to his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchild. His love of music and playing songs on the guitar brought joy and happiness to all around him. During his rarer quiet moments Dewey loved to read poetry and study the Bible. In 2005 Dewey suffered a major stroke and was shortly thereafter moved to the VA Hospital Kerrville, Texas. He was supported by his faithful and steadfast wife Jo Ann-- the love of his life--who was by his side to take care of him everyday. Both Brenda and Bubba made their father proud and was a source of love and encouragement in later years. Dewey's greatest joy was in his granddaughters and they love their Papa with all of their hearts. He had a full and blessed life, and his passing leaves a hole in the family, even as we rejoice in knowing that he rests in the arms of Christ.
