

Diana Rose Alfaro

March 27, 1960 - February 1, 2017

Diana Rose Alfaro was born March 27, 1960 to Lydia and Mario Alfaro in San Antonio, Texas. She grew up with three sisters in San Antonio. After graduating from Churchill High School, Diana worked with Southwestern Bell and retired after 30 years. Diana moved to Austin, north Texas and then California after her retirement. Throughout her adult life she loved and was devoted to her dogs. Her animals gave her much peace in life as well as her creative pursuits, whether it was making jewelry, sourcing crystals, or decorating her home. She spent her last years in adventuring California.
