“ I met Diana through her granddaughter Miranda and she quickly took me under her wing as one of her own she mentored me , guided me , showed me love I’ve never felt before from a grandma or mother figure. That’s something I’m going to truly miss the most her love. The smile that came on my face when she walked in the room, even when I was at my lowest and ran away from everything and anyone she didn’t give up on me she searched for me high and low and when she found me broken spirited and alone her hug and love bought me back to the bright side . Thank you Miranda and family for allowing me to get close to her and yalls family
With a broken heart and deep condolences-Cece
