“ After so many years of loving memories, two specific acts of love and caring stand out to me personally. Aunt Diana and Uncle Donnie gave me a store bought plaid dress for Christmas when I was eight years old. It was my first store bought dress ever! I felt like a queen! Another memory is when I visit them for a week while they lived in Pasadena. I was ten years old that year. At supper one night, I put some mustard on my mashed potatoes and stirred that around. Uncle Donnie said "that looks like baby poop". Aunt Diana fussed at him for saying that. I thought it was funny!

“ When I first moved to Rockport, I didn't know anyone other than my daughter. That didn't last long. I met Diana and Don who live across the street soon after. We became good friends/neighbors sharing meals and just gabbing. I will sure miss that shining smile, quick humor and love we shared. Melissa
