For all the people that knew her they knew not talk about her son because she love him to the moon and back no matter what, even though they Bump heads.

She had a name for everything down to stores and towns, her son said my favorite was when she call wal inside Walmart and Canicas instead Marble

She loved animals specifically Chico and Reyna (her chihuahua dogs) she also loved plants(she called it nature) when I would take her plants she loved giving them names like Josefina, I always made her happy when I would take care of her plants and yard ,she use to say to me Thank you mijo for making time to come and clean the yard. I don't even think that she even cared about the yard all she wanted was for me to be there.,

“ Diane was a very kind person and loved having people visit her. I remember the last time I went to San Antonio for a visit we spent a lot of our time just talking with each other and catching up. Steve would also grill meat while we made the sides. She looked so happy. As the time got closer for me to come back home she told me she wasn't going to let me go because she had enjoyed our time together so much. As did I. But the thing I loved most about her was how she loved and repected my parents and the love she had for my brother. It was second to none. I will always love and miss you Diane. Love your sister Vickie.
