“ Words cannot adequately express our most heartfelt sympathy to Frank, Brianna & all of Diane’s family. She was an amazing Christian woman who truly loved The Lord and it showed in everything she did. Diane will be missed but she has won the battle and is VICTORIOUS! i can almost see her dancing & playing her Shofar in the realms of Heaven. She will be waiting at The Gates of Heaven to share a glorious reunion with those she loved!
Love & Prayers,
Buddy & Roslyn

“ To Diana my dearest Friend,
A truly great friend is hard to find. Difficult to leave and impossible to replace .
You are irreplaceable,
If someone asks me to describe you . It would be one Word “
Miracle “
Since the day I met you , You were a walking Miracle you never cease to amaze me. We were Sisters of the Heart. You are one of those people who made my life better just by being in it.
I will miss you greatly. Our talks and all our funny and fun filled days we shared.
I LOVE YOU, Love Melinda Pena

“ *Diane,
You were the best at your craft. You did so many miracles with my hair across the years.
More than that, you were a great friend. The secrets and laughs we shared bring a smile to my face through my tears. I remember the last time we spoke in early June. You will be greatly missed. Rest in peace my friend. 🌹*
