“ Daddy, it's been 13 years since you went to Heaven. I remember your humor and intelligence when healthy and your strength during illness. I remember your talents for telling jokes and cooking and also for teaching me math when I was a kid. Sometimes it seems you left a long time ago, other times it feels like it was yesterday. But one day I'll see you again (and yes, we will probably bicker...lol). I love you always, Daddy. ❤️

“ Daddy, as I go through the house sorting and cleaning, I remember and honor you. I thank you and Mother for sacrificing for us - so that we never went homeless or hungry, never went without medical care, never went without education. I miss you and Mother and visited the cemetery today. We love and miss you both!! ❤️

“ Dear Flores Family,

We personally know the grief that all of you are sharing. Death is never easy to come to terms with. Uncle Deigo is in a much better place now, where there is no pain. We will remember all the good times he shared with us.
