

Dixie Wyatt Gonzalez

May 3, 1923 - June 25, 2020

Dixie Wyatt Gonzalez join the Lord on June 25, 2020 in San Antonio, Texas. She was born on May 3, 1923 in Post, Texas to James Clinton Wyatt and Oletha Josephine Collins. Mrs. Gonzalez was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Eddie E. Gonzalez. She is survived by her daughter, Carla Chapa (Doug); son, Rick Gonzalez; 7 grandchildren; Amber, Jason, Richard, Elizabeth, Christopher, Lorna and Emily, and 2 great-grandchildren, Callie and Isla.

Dixie loved life and throwing a great party. She enjoyed having her friends and family around on the weekends for a BBQ and a beer. She particularly loved to travel. She worked in the fish factories in Alaska, managed a cafe at Yellowstone National Park and was a gate guard in the Rio Grande Valley and those are just a few of her many talents. She enjoyed going on Cruises and just taking a drive to see the sights.

We consider to her to be a pioneer in the food truck industry, having owned her first one back in the early 1980's. She loved to cook, read, play golf, play cards and games and enjoyed being with her family and friends. She loved to watch her kids play sports and she was a big fan of the Dallas Cowboys and San Antonio Spurs. She was also a great athlete growing up, playing Volleyball, Softball and Swimming.

Dixie touched many lives in her 97 years and everyone will truly miss her strength, independence and beautiful blue eyes. We have all been blessed to have known her. "Live Like Dixie".

“ It was a pleasure to know this beautiful lady many years ago. She was such a vibrant, joyful, kind, and loving person. Josie and Tony LaFargue introduced Jesse and Me (Mamie) to Dixie and Eddie. We had many happy times together in their backyard on Gramercy. It was a joy to hear about her stories, her love for her children and all the different projects that she was going to do. May she rest in peace. Our sincere sympathy and prayers to her family. May the Lord God give you consolations. Jesse and Mamie Garza

“ Carla, and all who mourn the passing of Sweet Dixie. She will be missed, what a life she lived. Thanks for sharing and introducing me to her, such a vibrant full of life sweet lady. Sharing stories of her past made me feel right at home. May she now rest in peace in her new journey. Enjoy the many memories she has left to cherish in the days and weeks ahead. I may not be present with you, but know I am thinking of you all and hold you close in prayer. Love Liz Barrera

“ Most sincere, heartfelt condolences to you, Rick, Carla and the rest of the family on your loss. Dixie was an angel sent down from heaven who's sole purpose to make everybody around her feel that much better. If ever there was anybody who really could " Turn A Frown Upside Down ", that was Dixie, just by being with her ! She enjoyed a long, fulfilled life, and just knowing she is still with everybody will ensure them everlasting happiness & joy. May Dixie Rest In Eternal Peace, Vaya Con Dios, Señora Dixie Wyatt Gonzales !

“ Well our Dixie is mingling with the crowd in Heaven...I'll bet y'all are already having fun drinking those cold beers. Great memories of our childhood with our parents always partying and letting us run wild! Dixie you were a hoot! You lived a wonderful and long life. We are sending our condolences and love to Carla and Rick. Love you Dixie!
