“ My grandma was a huge influence in my life and I will miss her the rest of my days. She had a wonderful sense of humor and could always make me smile, even on the worst days. Let me tell you, I really could've used one of her jokes today. Though losing her is unbearable, I have many wonderful memories to cherish and for that I am grateful. I will celebrate her life each time I retell one of her stories, laugh at the nicknames she gave us, or hear her words come out of my own mouth. The world lost a truly special lady, and anyone she met was better person for knowing her.

“ Dolly was a very influential person in my life because she taught me how to pray. I learned how to walk by faith and not by sight. She gave me hope when I needed direction for my life.

“ How lucky I was to be my Aunt Dolly's first niece. I got all of her attention and she always told me she taught me how to walk. I will always cherish the memories I have of her and all the wonderful times I had with her and her daughter Linda. Glenn, Kent, and Linda: I'm so sorry for your loss. God blessed us all with her beautiful soul. I will always love you Aunt Dolly! Until we meet again!
