In Loving Memory of Dolores Theresa D'Alfonso

November 18, 1935 – November 26, 2025

With deep love and heartfelt remembrance, the family of Dolores Theresa D'Alfonso announces her passing on November 26, 2025, at the age of 90. Born on November 18, 1935, to Vincent and Florence Lewis, she grew up in San Antonio, Texas, where she graduated from G. W. Brackenridge High School.

She shared 43 years of marriage with her beloved husband, Pietro D'Alfonso, whose passing in 2017 ended a long partnership built on love, loyalty, and family.

A loving mother, she is survived by her children Rhonda Berry, daughter-in-law Sylvia Cevallos, James Berry, Vincent D'Alfonso, and Theresa Ortiz, son-in-law Xavier Ortiz. She is preceded in death by her daughter Monica Kirby, and by Monica's husband, Cordell Kirby, who are remembered with enduring love.

Her legacy continues through her cherished granddaughters: Jennifer Kirby, Alexis Ortiz, and Breanna Ortiz.

Those who knew her will fondly remember her deep and spirited love for Elvis Presley, whose music she adored. She was an avid piano player and continued to play well into her old age. She had an extraordinary heart for animals—especially stray cats—and never hesitated to give a home, a meal, or comfort to any creature in need. Her gentle compassion extended to all living things.

Her family will always think of her with a smile when they see a Hershey's Chocolate, her favorite treat and a simple delight she never outgrew.

Her life was a testament to love, resilience, and kindness. She lives on in the hearts and memories of all who had the privilege of knowing her.

Forever loved. Forever missed. Forever remembered.
