“ Miss I wish I could have talked to you before you passed. I'm here with Jessica thinking about all the times I would have to go out of town and I had to tell you, you wouldn't want me to leave. I'm going to miss you so much you were a great grandmother to Emma and the rest of your grandchildren. Just know I will always take care of Jessica and your grandchildren. I love you and Barbacoa will never be the same. Love spike

Lola, my best friend from elementary school, I am so sorry that I did not get to say goodbye. I'm going to miss our long conversations we had over the years. We shared many joys, but also much grief together, when we both lost our moms. I pray that you are at peace my friend, and I will hold onto our many memories until see see each other again.
