“Lola was my cousin and my mom Rosa Olivares Esparza was her aunt. These two women were best of friends and would talk hours on the phone to each other. They would refer to each other as "Manita". My mom lived in Los Angeles and Lola in San Antonio. Ten yrs ago my mom passed away and once in a long while Lola & I would talk and she even came to visit me in Las Vegas. We didn't talk again until after her husband Cesar passed away. By then she was in an assistant living facility but I reconnected with Dee and her siblings and I was fortunate to hear and talk briefly a few times with Lola again. Her voice was the same and she was still young at heart. She remembered me.

Lola lived a good long life and her children were very much loved by her. Condolences to my Texas family , Aloha, Jessica & Clayton Rowland.
