“ Sending all my love to you Norma, Lydia, Emma and Angela. I have so many great memories of your daddy and will carry those with me. I always remember when he would travel somewhere for work he always brought something back for us. He is with daddy now and enjoying themselves with no more worries or pain. I will love you forever Mingo.

“ I have several memories of my cousin, Mingito throughout my life. I remember living with grandma “Nona” and him visiting with her. He was always so kind, patient and compassionate with her and me. Grandma was constantly in prayer for the health and safety of all her children and grandchildren, especially those who served in the military, like Mingito. I distinctly remember one visit to my parents house. He greeted me with a big hug and kiss as he lifted me up toward the ceiling. I remember thinking I could touch the ceiling and through my child’s eyes I saw his beautiful heart and so handsome face. I thought he was the strongest and most handsome man, my cousin Mingito.

We were so proud of him, especially my dad, “Uncle LuLu” when we learned Mingito was a responsible member of the crew that made sure our United States President was safe and secure aboard a finely tuned and maintained Air Force One. Mingito brought my dad a beautiful Blue and Gold

Air Force One Coffee cup. My dad loved that cup and now I have it. We love ❤️ you Mingito, May you share in the Eternal Love and Peace of Christ, Until we meet again,
Your cousin, Bertie
