

Domingo Daniel Martinez

August 21, 1955 - March 2, 2018

Domingo Daniel Martinez age 62 went to be with our lord on March 02, 2018 after a long struggle with liver disease. Domingo lived at home with his beloved pets in San Antonio, TX. Domingo was born on August 21, 1955 in San Antonio, TX the son of Isabel E. Martinez and John R. Martinez. Domingo received his education in Pharr, TX, where he later joined the Army. Domingo had a passion for world history as well as an extensive knowledge of military aircrafts and world events. He loved nature and enjoyed a good conversation of bible scripture with friends and family. He was funny, with a sense of humor and imagination all his own. Domingo is survived by his two brothers: Antonio and Albert Martinez and two sisters: Magdalena Garcia and Dolores Martinez who took care of Domingo after his health began to deteriorate. She devoted and sacrificed everything with in her for the sake of her brother. He passed away peacefully surrounded by his sister Dolores and family. Domingo's life will continue through his immediate family, nieces and nephews he spent time with. He will be deeply missed on earth and eagerly awaited by more family in Heaven. We love you and will miss you greatly Sonny boy...

“ I will surely miss my uncle Mingo! He was very knowledgeable and I will miss our deep conversations which regrettably I never recorded. People and especially kids gravitated to him and he knew how to make us smile. Mingo R.I.P. I love you always...
