“ Tio Mingo was always one who loved to make you laugh. He would tell me stories as I grew up. He would love me no matter what was going on. He always would remind me to take care of your family and as a grew up he still would say Vera love your family. They are the only ones that matter. What a joy it was to visit him at the Reyna house it brought many memories to me and when I brought my grandkids to meet him he welcomed them with open arms and played with them in the front yard. What joy he brought to me and my grandkids. He was proud of his bike. And loved and cared for his brother Tio Joe. I know he will be missed..but what joy to know he is with family and the Lord. Tio you are one of a kind. May God comfort the Reyna family
