

Don Martin Brockman

November 2, 1928 - May 4, 2015

Don Martin Brockman was born in Brownfield, Texas on November 2, 1928 to Emory and Sue Brockman. He was known as a happy child, loved the out of doors and enjoyed playing the tuba and boxing and graduated from Junction High School. He was drafted into the army during the Korean conflict and stationed at Panama Canal Zone where he met the love of his life, Bonnah Hypes. He graduated from Texas A&M in 1957. Don owned a number of small businesses, retiring from Brockman Pest Control. Survivors include siblings: David Brockman and wife Ethel of Fort Stockton, Imogene Carter and husband Bill of Del Rio, Clifton Brockman of Del Rio; children: Emily Moreno and husband Mario of Cibolo, Laura Murray and husband Dean of San Antonio, Don Brockman, Jr. of Houston; grandchildren: Diane Ventresca and husband Zach of Leander, Stephanie Gerst of Flagstaff, Rebecca Bray and husband Ryan of Seattle, and David Beall of Columbus; great grandchildren: Alyssa and Mariah Caribardi of Leander; and numerous nieces and nephews. Visitation: Saturday, May 9 at 11 a.m. and Memorial Service at 12 noon at Mission Park North, 3401 Cherry Ridge. There will be a private burial at Fort Sam Houston.