

Don Franklin Fleenor

May 14, 1937 - January 25, 2026

Don Franklin (Frank) Fleenor was born on May 14, 1937 in Floyd County, Texas. He passed away on January 25, 2026. He is preceded in death by his wife of 62 years Jackie Beth Cotten Fleenor, his older sister Mary Katherine Webb (Billy Joe Webb), younger brother Gene Fleenor, and son-in-law Jerry Grohman. He is survived by his younger sister Doris Flatt (Eddie Flatt), sister-in-law Nita Fleenor, son Doug Fleenor (Ann Fleenor), Beth Grohman, Beckie Stratemann (Bert Stratemann), Twelve grandchildren and spouses, 18 great-grandchildren and spouses, and 8 great-great-grandchildren, along with numerous nieces and nephews.

Frank was a loving husband and father who enjoyed weekly family dinners and yearly family reunions. His career included over 40 years as a radio and television engineer. Throughout his career he worked in various locations from the small town of Muleshoe, Texas at KMUL-FM Radio to the larger markets of Houston at NASA and San Antonio at Trinity University and Univision Television. He was a life long Methodist and enjoyed working on cars, dabbling in carpentry, maintaining his home and cars, and fixing anything that was broken. But most of all he enjoyed spending time with his family.

“ I unfortunately never had the honor of meeting Don, but I have had the privilege of working with his grandson Josh as his leader and friend. If the measure of a man is the family he leaves behind and the way they saw him... Don must have been no less than a giant. Our collective thoughts and prayers are with all of the family and friends in this difficult time. Thank you Don for the family you raised and sharing your grandson with us.
