

Don W. Russell

December 16, 1938 - April 16, 2013

Don W. Russell, 74, went to be with the Lord, Tuesday, April 16, 2013 in Houston, TX surrounded by his loving family. He was a big part of the Marion, TX community for the last 39 years. He is survived by his wife Jacquelyn Ann Price Russell, daughter, Deborah, and daughter Catherine Wilson and son-in-law Michael Wilson, grandchildren Jordan, Katie, and Darrell, sister Marilyn Huff, nephew David and wife Cindi Huff, and niece Diane and husband David Jones and numerous great nieces and nephews.

Don was born December 16, 1938 in Wichita, Kansas to Harley and Louise Russell. After graduation from Wichita High School, he and his parents moved to San Antonio, Texas. While working at his family's restaurant, Russell's Drive-In, he met the love of his life, Jackie. They married in 1959 and had two daughters, Debbie and Cathie.

Don worked for Southern Pacific Railroad before going into the printing industry, working for Clegg Printing and later owning a color graphics business, Quality Graphics.

Don enjoyed traveling, camping, fishing, organic gardening and spending time outdoors. Most of all, he loved spending time with family and friends.

Don was a double lung recipient in August of 2011 and fought bravely for recovery with his devoted-loving wife, Jackie, by his side. The family would like to thank everyone for the enormous outpouring prayers and support. The family would also like to thank the remarkable team of transplant doctors, nurses and staff at both Methodist Hospital and Kindred Hospital in Houston who fought to honor his life and the gift of organ donation.
