

Donna Lee Spear

August 11, 1941 - November 21, 2011

Donna Lee Spear was called to her rest on Monday, November 21, 2011. Donna was born August 11, 1941 in Port Arthur, Texas. She and her mother, Helen, and brother Danny have owned and operated "The Land of Was Antiques" at 3119 Broadway in San Antonio, Texas for fifty-two years.

As a young woman Donna became an expert marksman and horseback rider. She later competed in rodeo's until attending the University of Arizona Undergraduate and Law School. During those days she had a chance to lunch with Elvis Presley and also numerous dates with Wayne Newton who played at her school dances of which her mother told her she couldn't date him because "He'll never amount to a hill of beans. No! Ten Hills."

After falling from a horse she left law school and joined her mother in the antique business in Phoenix, Arizona. She became a certified gemologist, diamond appraiser and buyer. When China opened borders to trade with the western world, Donna was chosen as one of the first Americans to enter China to assess the antique market.

Donna was a gracious and lovely woman with many talents. She was preceded in death by her father, Oscar Vincent and mother Helen Spear. She is survived by her brother, Danny Spear, sister, Tammy Spear Burnet, her dogs, Killer and Lolita Spear an many close and loving friends.

SERVICES

Visitation will begin at 11:00 AM followed by a chapel service at 12:00 PM, Saturday, November 26, 2011 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. You may offer condolences and sign the on-line guest book at www.missionparks.com under the obituary section.