

Dora Amaya

May 28, 1927 - April 5, 2021

Wow! I am so lucky my name has finally been drawn to be with my Heavenly Father. I Dora Amaya, wife of the late Richard C. Amaya, US Army (ret), would like to invite you to join my children: Rachel, Naomi, and Robert; my grandchildren, my great-grandchildren and my great-great grandchildren; my sister Rebecca (Tony), my brother Richard (Elida), and all my friends and relatives for a celebration of my grand and wonderful life. Please, no sad hearts or tears but smiles and warm hugs....DO NOT wear black! I would like to be remembered as a happy, loving person whom God chose to shower with many blessings. In lieu of flowers please consider a donation to the American Heart Association, the American Cancer Society, or St. Henry's Catholic Church in San Antonio, Texas.

“ *My heart goes out to all of you and your families. I know your mom is dancing away with Richard and my parents in heaven. I spoke to your mom quite a few times the last few years, and loved talking with her. She always made me laugh and brightened my day. Heaven is rejoicing today.
