

Dora E. Avard

March 25, 1917 - September 5, 2010

Avard

Dora Elizabeth Betty Avard passed away on September 5, 2010 in New Braunfels, Texas. She was born on March 25, 1917 in Chambers, Nebraska to Earl H. and Nellie Medcalf. She was an elementary school teacher who dedicated her life to education. She attended The University of Nebraska where she earned both Bachelors and Masters degrees. She is survived by one daughter Patricia Pearson. She is preceded in death by her husband of 66 years Perry T. Avard, and four brothers Norman, Don, Max, and Ben and two sisters, Nina and Marilyn. She was also blessed with numerous nieces and nephews. Services will be held Saturday, September 11, 2010 at 11AM at Canyon Lake United Methodist Church, followed by interment in Cranes Mill Cemetery. In lieu of follows donations may be made to Canyon Lake United Methodist Church, or your favorite charity.