

Dora D. Ortiz

May 4, 1926 - July 23, 2016

San Antonio, Texas – Dora D. Ortiz, 90 died Saturday, July 23, 2016, at the VITAS Hospice Unit in San Antonio, Texas following a brief illness.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 52 years, Ralph M. Ortiz.

She is survived by a son, David O. Ortiz and two daughters, Elsa O. Ybañez and Nelda J. Ortiz; grandchildren, Stephen Indridson and Emily, Jenna and Jonathan Ortiz; great-grandchildren, Austin and Seth Indridson, Sadie Garcia and Addison Steward.

Born and raised in Dilley, Texas, the daughter of Manuel Diaz and Alberta Garcia, she was a lifelong resident of San Antonio, Texas.

After graduating from Dilley High School, she married Ralph M. Ortiz and made her home in San Antonio, Texas with her husband and raising her children.

Dora Ortiz had a passion for animals and encouraged her children to respect animals and their place in the world.

After her children were grown, she took great pride in volunteering at a local hospital, which she did for many years. She had many friends throughout her lifetime and maintained close contact with them as well as with her extended family.

Her family thanks the VITAS Hospice Inpatient Center whose kind and caring staff supported her needs throughout her stay.
