

Doreen Heslop Cantrell

September 4, 1938 - January 21, 2017

Doreen Heslop Cantrell, beautiful and precious wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, completed her life's journey on January 21, 2017 after a brief illness. She was born on September 4, 1938 to Ann (nee Colleran) and John Heslop in Hanwell, England. She grew up a few miles away in Hayes, Middlesex, England. She met her future husband Carl ("Mitch") and married him on December 28, 1957. They spent 55 years together. Our mother was funny, loved a good laugh and enjoyed her friends, traveling throughout the world, and reading. She built a family and life in the U.S., however she always yearned for her home country. She left behind a fierce and loyal love for her family, one we hold onto in our hearts.

She was predeceased by her parents and husband Carl. She leaves behind her daughters Julia Cantrell and Kathryn Maddox (Gene), grandchildren Kristian and Daisy and her family, beloved sister Maureen Clements (Terry), niece and partner in mischief, Kerry and grandnephew Tom, special nephew Justin Clements (Justine) and their children Talitha, Georgia and Edith, and friends, including her British wives community, and family members in Tennessee and Kentucky.

A funeral mass for her will be held Wednesday, February 1, 2017 at 10:00 AM at St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church, 9883 Marbach Road. In lieu of flowers please consider a donation to the American Lung Association or the Parkinson's Disease Foundation.

“ Me, Kathryn Maddox and my mom Doreen Cantrell. This was December 13th, 2016. We had gone to visit my dad's grave. Then we had a lovely day together. She was always thanking me and telling me how much she appreciated what I did for her and how happy she was to get out of the house and spend time together. Little did she know that it was I who appreciated our time together. She was my mom and loved me always.
