I'm without words ha imagine Dora me Kim without words. I received the call the other morning from my Masota Mary telling me you were sick in the hospital and I said, Let me get dressed I'll be there. Then I said in the shower if I don't go she'll be okay and I'll go see her at home but I was wrong. You always called me your daughter from another mother,,,, Oh Dora I'm so at a loss for words. You're in a better place with Boo-boo and Ashley they will have you there you're pain free and resting you were one AMAZING FRIEND, MOM, GRANDMA AND TIA. I Love You Dora and I will miss you something awful but I have some of the funniest, most beautiful memories that will live forever until we meet again RIP and I'll drink a beer or two or three for you.
