“ Charlie & I will Always remember how sweet Doris was, how much she Loved to stay busy & involved at the nursing home doing arts & crafts, playing bingo, volleyball, fishing, Pictionary, wheelchair dancing, uno, dominoes as well as many parties she attended with her daughters. The most memorable party was this year’s Valentines party where the announcement was made that she was voted 2025 Valentines Queen of Country Care Manor. Her room was the prettiest room and I will forever miss seeing her there every day at work. It won’t be the same without you sweet Doris. I love you, Donna Walpole
