

Doris Helen Leonard

May 17, 1925 - December 5, 2010

Leonard

Doris Helen Leonard went home to be with Jesus Sunday afternoon, December 5, 2010. Helen was the devoted wife of Alvin Eugene Leonard, who co-founded L&H Packing Company, and went before her to our heavenly Father in July, 1991. Helen, or GG, as she was known to her 8 grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren, dedicated her life to being wife and mother and grandma. Her grandchildren remember their fun games of Farkel, Chicken Foot, and crazy jeep rides with GG. She and Al had many dear, longtime friends who shared life and laughter with them playing dominoes, square dancing, RVing, traveling, and hunting. Helen enjoyed her "lunch bunch" ladies who were friends of many years who celebrated birthdays with lunch and funny cards, a tradition of many years. Helen and Al were members of University Park Baptist church for over 20 years and then members of Castle Hills First Baptist Church. In her last years, Helen enjoyed listening to Bill Gaither videos, visiting with her family and friends, and coming back with "snappy" , funny retorts to those who enjoyed her sense of humor. Helen was born May 17, 1925 in Anadarko, Oklahoma. She is survived by two daughters, Sharen Eggleston and her husband Marvin, and Terry Scott and her husband David, and a son, Ken Leonard and his wife Tanya, 8 grandchildren, Daryl Scott, Kara, Still, Ryan Scott, Lauren Kalmbach, Meredith Davis, Leslie Erfurt, Neal Leonard and Clayton Leonard , and 17 great grandchildren.

“ Dear Family~ What a wonderful legacy Mrs. Leonard leaves with so many loving children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and friends. It is always hard to lose one who has been part of our life in most cases for all of our own life.

May God grant you
