

Doris Ruth Langley

February 14, 1924 - December 12, 2017

Doris Gerfers Langley, born February 14, 1924, went to be with her Lord and Savior on December 12, 2017. Waiting to welcome her were beloved husband, John Langley, Sr., parents Rosie and Richard Gerfers, brother Clyde, Gilbert and Guy Gerfers, sister Dorothy Coy and great grandson Andrew Covey. When asked to tell one thing about our mother, the response was how much she loved her family. She was the thread that held the family together and we are blessed to have had her for so long. Those she leaves behind to cherish her memory are sons, John Jr. (Judi), Robert Michael (Andrea) and daughter Doris Poirier (Larry). Her grandchildren were everything to her: Cindy Thomas (Michael), Cheryl Covey, Denise Hawthorne (Jason) and Todd Poirier. Her great-grandchildren meant the world to her: Jay Covey, Matthew, Angela and Jessica Thomas, Jacob and Samuel Hawthorne. Doris is also survived by her sister-in-law Mary Gerfers, Irma Hess and Maudell Langley and numerous nieces and nephews.

A special thank you to Rosie Lozano who assisted Mom for the last 10 years. You are a blessing. The family would like to thank the staff at Esplanade Gardens for the love and care provided to our mom for the past 2 years. Thanks also to Kindred Hospice for the care they provided.

Service will be held at Mission Park South as follows: Visitation- Sunday, December 17, 2017 from 5:00 PM to 9:00 PM. Funeral Service with burial to follow will be Monday, December 18, 2017 at 11:00 AM.

“ I have fond memories of Aunt Doris though I grew up in Indiana and didn't see my fathers family often. I spent part of the summer of '61 in San Antonio and have fun memories.
