

Doris Luna

November 24, 1936 - June 29, 2022

Marie “Doris” Luna went to be with the Lord on June 29, 2022, at the age of 85 in San Antonio, TX. She was surrounded by loved ones at the time she passed.

Doris was born on November 24, 1936 in Lyford, TX. She is preceded in death by her husband, Tony G. Luna, her parents, Jacinto and Candelaria Cavazos, her siblings, Aurora Chavarria, Juanita Durham, Lala Gonzalez, Chinto Cavazos and Ruben Cavazos, and her daughter-in-law, Susan Luna. Doris is survived by her loving children, Marcus Luna (Ileana), Melissa Bernal (Paul) and Stephen Luna (Deanna), grandchildren, Jonathan, Lauren, Louie, Angelina, William, Alyssa, John and Michael, and great-granddaughter, Avalynn Sue, and numerous nieces and nephews.

While visiting her sister and brother-in-law in the summer of 1955 in Stockdale, TX, Doris met the love of her life, Tony G. Luna, at an outdoor dance. A year later, they were married and moved to San Antonio. She enrolled in beauty school and began the career she loved. She truly enjoyed being a hairdresser and relished the lasting relationships she had with her customers. She was a successful businesswoman partially owning and operating 5 beauty shops, and a clothing, jewelry, and shoe store for over 50 years. She enjoyed socializing with her long-time business partners, coworkers and her clients.

Besides her career, Doris loved spending time with her extended family. She was happiest when she was with her brothers, sisters and her relatives. For her own family, she was a nurturing mother whose priorities were always for her husband and children. Doris and Tony's relationship exemplified grace and unconditional love for each other and their children.

A special thank you to the staff at Shavano Park Senior Living and retirement center. They provided so much love and care for Doris. The family really appreciated it. Thank you!
