Doris Mosher will be remembered for her selfless acts of love for her family and friends. She was always the first to help someone in need, be it family, friend or many times, complete strangers. She was a Christian woman who loved the Lord deeply and her faith was strong. She believed that we should serve others as Jesus said for us to. She was a blessing to many who God brought her way.

In her younger years, her large family always gathered at her home for holiday meals. She was a superb country cook and missed being able to do those dinners as her health would no longer allow. Before she retired in 1996, she was caregiver to the elderly as a profession. She loved her job so much. She loved to read, listen to old gospel songs and hymns, spend time with family and friends, and go for long drives in the country.

Doris will be remembered by her family and friends with great love, respect and admiration. She overcame much in her life and found her strength in Jesus. Heaven has gained a beautiful woman.
