

Doris Virginia B. White

September 29, 1919 - September 17, 2006

Doris Virginia B. White, loving wife, mother and grandmother, went to be with the Lord on September 17, 2006. She was born in Mason, Tennessee on September 29, 1919 to John and Muzzette Booker. She was valedictorian of her high school class and graduated from Memphis State University where she majored in Music. There she played basketball where she was the only freshman on the varsity team. She was an accomplished pianist as well. She met and married the love of her life, Warner White on June 15, 1941. They shared a loving marriage for over 61 years. For years she worked for Dr. Maxwell at the Nix downtown hospital. She was a 50 year plus member of the Order of the Eastern Star and a graduate of Concept Therapy Institute. For years she was an active member of the St. Mark's United Methodist Church where she served in many ways from teaching Sunday school to making the children's choir robes. She was preceded in death by her husband, Warner R. White, her parents, John and Muzzette Booker of Paris, Tennessee, her sister Mrs. Muzzette Morris of Union City, Tennessee and brother-in-law, J.R. White, of Weslaco, Texas. She is survived by her daughter, Kathy Ciarmatori-Miller; granddaughters, Kelly Ciarmatori and Casey McDougall and husband Trey; and great-granddaughter Makayla McDougall. Virginia had the most gentle, sweet and caring spirit and would do anything for anybody. She radiated love and kindness toward everyone, and we are all better people for having known her. Although our hearts are very heavy, we know that Jesus has welcomed another angel home.

“ What a beautiful memorial!
I had forgotten how accomplished your mom was, but not how beautiful she was, her sweet nature and how much she gave of herself. I can still hear her calling my name and remember her laughter. We had such good times. I wi
