

Doris T. Wilson

December 12, 1924 - November 30, 2019

Doris Geisler Wilson was born on December 12, 1924 to her loving parents Max Geisler and Alma Carpenter Geisler. God came down and danced Doris to heaven on November 30, 2019. She was a 1942 alumni of Burbank High School. She was employed at Camp Normoyle at Kelly Air Force Base for 16 years. After her employment with KAFB she changed her career into the medical field. Doris worked for Dr. Raymond Borsheim from 1961 - 1978 and Dr. George Rapier until 1996. Her hobbies included sewing, ballroom and country dancing.

Doris was married to Robert Wilson until his death in 1984. Then she shared her life with Steve Fowler for 23 years who was her friend and companion. Steve preceded her in death in 2018.

She is survived by her beloved children Faye (Robert) Borroum and Robert (Melissa) Wilson; grandchildren Patrick (Julie) Borroum, Jeffrey and Brandon Borroum and Jacob Wilson; brother Lawrence (Imelda) Geisler.

Visitation will be held on Tuesday, December 3, 2019 from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. and a celebration of her life will be on Wednesday, December 4, 2019 at 9:00 a.m. Both will be held at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North.

Entombment to follow at Sunset Memorial Park.

In lieu of flowers donations can made to the melanoma foundation at donate3.cancer.org or call the American Cancer Society 1-800-227-2345.
