

Dorotea M. Caraballo

February 6, 1930 - December 25, 2022

Abraham Lincoln said, "All I am and all I hope to be, I owe to my mother." My sibling, grandchildren and I can say the same about our mom, Dorotea Martinez Caraballo. She embodied humility, compassion, kindness, and love and we will miss her dearly.

Dorotea Martinez Caraballo passed away in her son's home off Whispering Willow Street, San Antonio, Texas on Christmas Day, December 25, 2022. She was loved by many, especially her husband Castor (deceased), Son Francisco (Frank), daughter Dulce (Candy) and 7 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren, 3 great-great grandchildren and the many foster children she cared for in her home.

Dorotea was born February 6, 1930 in Romana, Dominican Republic. After Castor died in 2008, she relied on her deep Christian faith to continue to embrace peace and positivity. Throughout her 92 years, and as an Interior Designer she saw beauty all around her. She saw the beauty in everything, never failed to notice and call out sunrise, sunset, the hint of blue sky in a sea of clouds, the unique blend of an old sycamore tree, the rippled edges of a barely turning autumn leaf, the snow or the way the ocean caught the sun like diamonds dancing on the waves. She had the soul of an artist, and she tapped her impressive artistic talent to share the moments that touched her most. And her soul touched our lives in the most beautiful ways, ones we will never forget.

“ One of the main things that I remember about my aunt was her Love and faith for the Lord. She prayed every day and night thanking the Lord for all the blessings he had given her. I have very special memories of her. I have always been very close to my aunt. I loved her very much and I will treasure all the good memories I had with her. May she rest in peace.

“ One of the main things I remember and loved about Dulce was how she made me feel very blessed each time, every single time, I visited or saw her. You know when someone is so sweet and loving to you, just a joy to be loved so much. I always felt that fr her and I loved returning the feeling to her. That's when you know that not only is there a God, but that he is a loving God...if there was ever any doubt. Fr all my heart, Manuel (Lito) SanMiguel

“ Thank you, Mom for showing me life from a realistic and loving point of view. My memories will always be pleasant and joyful because of the way you lived your life. Always, with a smile and always with a strong determination for what was right. There was always laughter when you were around and those are the things that remain with me now that you are gone. You may be gone from this life but you will always be in my heart until we meet again. With all my love, your daughter, Dulce. (Candy)
