

Dorotha J. Dotson

January 3, 1928 - June 11, 2020

Dorotha Julia Dotson, 92, passed away Thursday, June 11, 2020 in San Antonio, TX. Dorotha was born on January 3, 1928 to Alvin and Adelia Elley in Seguin, TX.

Throughout her life, Dorotha was the perfect example of how hard work and perseverance pays off. Her career began locally in Seguin where she spent time working in a local dairy store and at the bus station. At some point, she met her husband of 46 years, Lemmie Dotson. They married on December 25, 1946 in Seguin and then eventually relocated to San Antonio where Dorotha continued her career in customer service at Joske's Department Store and Handy Andy. She was known for her green thumb and gardening skills which she put to use as an employee at multiple local nurseries in San Antonio. Dorotha finished her long and productive career in her late 80's as a representative for Boar's Head. She had much pride and enjoyment in traveling around San Antonio and surrounding cities to demo the products. Dorotha also loved to give back to her community. She was very proud of having been a local Brownie and Girl Scout Leader as well as having been a volunteer for the District 2 Senior Center, which she frequented each weekday to enjoy time with friends, games and exercise. As a reward for her lifetime of hard work, Dorotha sprinkled in the right amount of fun in the form of dancing at Martinez Social Hall, gambling in multiple casinos and just spending time with her now large family of 30 plus members. For all those who had the opportunity to know Dorotha, her friendly smile, sense of humor, independent spirit and wittiness will never be forgotten.

“ Connie, Martin and Debbie When my mom passed away, that left a big void inside. It seemed strange but your mom helped fill some of that void back in. She always welcomed me into here home no matter what. That has always meant more to me than most people can imagine. Always had fun talking to her, there was always something to laugh about. You guys were lucky to have a mom like her. I know you will miss her, I know I will.....
