

Dorothy Braune Boldt

July 28, 1925 - July 2, 2009

BOLDT

With her husband of 64 years, the love of her life at her side, Dorothy Boldt died peacefully on July 2, 2009 at the age of 83. Born the sixth child of Meta and Willie Braune in New Brunfels, Texas, On July 28, 1925, Dorothy hit the ground running. While raising two sons, Dorothy was the original "supermom", pursuing a career with Civil Service, becoming a tireless worker at Hermann Sons, and dedicating 29 years to the American Legion Auxiliary. She lent her energy, leadership and creative talents to Boy Scouts of America, and contributed countless hours to charity fundraisers, quilting and support efforts for the Lutheran Church. We will remember her fondly for her caring and indomitable spirit and her inspiring and entertaining stories of adventure with her many pets and hobbies. In addition to her loving husband, Alvin, Dorothy is survived by her caring sons Bob Boldt and wife Paula and James Allan Boldt, 3 granddaughters, Brittany Burnett and husband Joe, Lindsay Boldt and April Boldt, 2 great-grandchildren, Jack and Tess Burnett, and countless loving family members and friends.
