“ I remember Sunday's at Memaw's with just about all the cousins and Aunts and Uncles. I'll always remember how sweet Aunt Dorothy was to all of us and how much she reminded me of our grandmother. We were always so excited to see their blue pick-up driving up with Vernie, Val & Vincent. So many childhood memories.

“ My dad has been friends with her sons since they were kids! My siblings and I grew up drinking all her chocolate milk, and climbing the trees in her yard. I will miss you.

“ We remember Dorothy from Good Shepherd Lutheran church where she worked in the daycare for many years. She also worked in the church childcare on Sundays. She was one of the kindest women. During my years at Good Shepherd, she was our friend. She was a kind person and we loved her.
