“ Your name conjures up so many memories of celebrations, the over 50 years of getting together for lunch on Wednesday each week and the brownies you would bake or the chocolate pudding you would bring, sometimes just the three of us and sometimes babies until they started school. And then there were the times we were blessed with you playing the piano in response to our many requests until you finally said, no more. Your beautiful smile and kind generous heart will be greatly missed. There is nothing like a sister. Love you very much, Gwen
