Dortha Gean Adams of San Antonio, Texas was born on April 3, 1925 in Antioch, Oklahoma went to be with the Lord on April 4, 2012 in Rockport, Texas. She is preceded in death by her beloved husband Buddy Adams, parents Bud and Bessie Burleson, and three sisters Inez Mann, Louise Skinner and Etheltha Bonnet. Survivors include her son Buddy G. Adams wife Joyce K. Adams, Rockport, Texas; two grandchildren, Buddy Gene Adams wife Debra L. Adams, Rockport, Texas and Susan Kay Streety husband Dan Steety, Fayetteville, Arkansas, and four great-grandsons Buddy Grant Adams, Trevor Adams, Zachary Adams and Brody Streety; and numerous nieces and nephews. She moved to San Antonio, Texas with her husband and son in 1950 and lived there until moving to Rockport, Texas in 2011. Her main occupation was as a bank teller for Frost Bank and Jefferson Bank. She loved working where she had the opportunity to meet and help many different people. She was a faithful Christian and attended the Church of Christ in San Antonio, Texas, including the congregations at Beacon hill, Jefferson, Shenandoah and San Pedro Churches of Christ. Because of her great faith, we know that she is now in heaven with her Lord and loving husband. We have all been blessed by her sharing her life and love with us. She will be missed by all of us.
