Earline Baldwin Wold

Katharine Earline Yaeger Baldwin Wold was born in Bessemer, Alabama, on July 14, 1923 and went to be with her Lord on February 10, 2015 in San Antonio, Texas at the age of 91. She was one of six children born to David Andrew Yeager and Mary Allen Winn. She was preceded in death by her parents, four brothers and a sister, her first husband, Robert M. Baldwin and her second husband, Rev. Roy H Wold. She is survived by her son Richard M. Baldwin Barbara of Helotes, Texas, son Roy A. Baldwin Caran of San Antonio and daughter Mary Watson Patrick of San Antonio as well as 7 grandchildren: Robert Baldwin, Patricia Baldwin Edmonds Jeffrey, Randall Baldwin Julie, Beverly Baldwin, Britany Baldwin, Megan Watson and Sarah Watson and 6 great-grandchildren. Earline's father died when she was very young and her mother moved the 6 children to San Antonio where she was able to receive family support. Earline graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School and worked at several secretarial jobs before moving to Hondo during WW II, where she met and married Robert M. Baldwin. While raising a family of three she was employed by Frank A. Stanush as his personal secretary, a position that she held for 36 years until she retired in 1995. Most of her adult life was spent as a faithful member of Los Angeles Heights United Methodist Church. She was active in Scouting and other activities of her 3 children. Earline made it a point to become friends with all of her children's friends. The untimely death of Robert in 1976 left her a widow until she married Rev. Roy H. Wold in 1992. They enjoyed traveling, daily walks and spending time with family and friends. In lieu of flowers the family is suggesting a contribution in her name to the Building Fund of Helotes Hills United Methodist Church, 13222 Bandera Road, Helotes, Texas 78023 or a charity of your choice.
