

Edgar G. Oliver

November 17, 1934 - January 27, 2009

Edgar G. Oliver, born November 17, 1934, passed away on January 27, 2009. He was a lifelong resident of San Antonio and a member of the Plumbers and Pipefitters Local 142. Mr. Oliver was preceded in death by his wife, Wilma E. Oliver. Survivors include his daughters: Debra K. Cool and Terrie L. Oliver; brother, James F. Oliver; sister, Ann Stacey and husband Don; 2 grandsons: Ryan and Zack; stepchildren: Melanie and Doug; numerous nieces and nephews, and other family

SERVICES

Visitation will begin at 3:00 PM on Friday, January 30 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels South. Graveside services will be held at 2:00 PM on Saturday, January 31 at Mission Burial Park South.

Tribute Wall

CF

“ Known by many as "Popeye" and a hell of a welder, he will be missed. He worked on many jobs with my dad, Clyde Chanack, and the friendship outlasted the jobs. Popeye was also there for my family when the house that I grew up in burned to the ground. He

Chanack Family - October 27, 2010 at 12:00 AM

DS

“ To the Oliver Family: Please accept our sincerest condolences in your loss and know that our prayers are with you. God Bless.

Don and Patsy Schodts - January 31, 2009 at 12:00 AM

MB

“ Edgar G. Oliver

Matthew Bunde - January 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM

CF

“ Known by many as "Popeye" and a hell of a welder, he will be missed. He worked on many jobs with my dad, Clyde Chanack, and the friendship outlasted the jobs. Popeye was also there for my family when the house that I grew up in burned to the ground. He

Chanack Family - January 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM

BF

“ I always knew Edgar as "Popeye". He was a good friend and one of the best welders I ever had the privilege to work with. Everyday Popeye had stories to tell and a joke or two. No matter how many times I heard the same joke or story it was still entertaini

Bill Forehand - January 30, 2009 at 12:00 AM