

Edith J. Siegel

January 11, 1928 - June 11, 2024

Edith Siegel passed away of natural causes in Plano, Texas, on June 11, 2024. She was 96 years old. She was born in Sweet Home, Texas, on January 11, 1928, to Anton and Annie Faldik. After graduating from Yoakum High School, she married Laddie Siegel on November 8, 1948. They moved to San Antonio where Laddie continued his military career which took them to Heidelberg and Frankfurt, Germany, Irving, Texas and back to San Antonio. She and Laddie had four children: Jeannette, Larry, Carole, and David.

Edith was preceded in death by her husband Laddie, siblings Tony Faldik, Olga Ingram, Frankie Faldik, Annie Patek and Joe Faldik. She is survived by daughter Jeannette Siegel, son Larry Siegel and his wife Cathy and son Nicholas, daughter Carole and husband Kent Garmon, and son David Siegel and wife Kelly and daughters Ella and Mila; siblings Marie Petersen, Bernadette Wesch and George Faldik and his wife Carol; and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.

Throughout her life, Edith loved listening to music---especially classic country--gardening, traveling, playing poker and dominoes, watching football games, frying chicken, and making noodles and kolaches for friends and family, and occasionally drinking a glass of wine or beer. She was an excellent seamstress and crocheted beautiful doilies and throws. Her favorite sports were softball in high school and later bowling. She worked as a seamstress at Kingston Manufacturing in San Antonio and as a cook at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Elementary School.

Edith loved her family and cherished the friends that she and Laddie made during their 46-year marriage. She was grateful for the many good times they all had together. She will be missed and remembered for her sweet smile and kindness.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy. I'll never forget vacationing with the Siegels back in the 60's and enjoying Aunt Edith's cooking, her sense of humor, her kids, and the looks she would give my dad and Laddie when they started acting out. Many fond memories of this family and the woman who was so special. Rest in peace Edith.
